Cautionary Statement in Forward-Looking Information

All statements made and information contained herein, other than statements of historical fact and historical information, is "forward-looking information" within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities laws. Such statements include, those with respect to focus and strategy. Such statements include, but are not limited to, the results of the Eagle East Feasibility Study and such other or similar studies on the Eagle Mine, including but not limited to Mineral Resource and Mineral Reserve estimates, as incorporated in Technical Report or otherwise, and references thereto. Words such as "assumption", "estimate", "expectations", and "Feasibility Study", or variations of these terms or similar terminology or statements that certain actions, events or results could, may or will occur or be achieved are intended to identify such forward-looking information. Forward-looking information is based on a number of assumptions, estimates and expectations that, while considered reasonable by the Company as of the date of such statements, are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive and other risks, uncertainties and contingencies which could cause such assumptions, estimates and expectations to be in correct and actual events or results to differ from those reflected in the forward-looking statements. The assumptions, estimates and expectations referenced, contained or incorporated by reference in this news release which may prove to be incorrect, include, but are not limited to, those set forth herein in the Technical Report. The risks, uncertainties and contingencies that could cause assumptions, estimates and expectations to be incorrect and actual results to differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements, include those described in the "Risks and Uncertainties" section of the Company's most recently filed Annual Information Form ("2017 AIF") and in the "Managing Risks" of the Company's full-year 2016 Management's Discussion and Analysis ("2016 MD&A"). All of the forward-looking statements made or referenced herein are qualified by these cautionary statements and those made in the Company's other news release dated April 10, 2017 regarding the Eagle East Feasibility Study, as well as the aforementioned cautionary statements in the Company's 2017 AIF and 2016 MD&A. Should one or more of these risks, uncertainties and contingencies materialize, or should underlying assumptions, estimates or expectations prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described in forward-looking statements. Accordingly, readers are advised not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements or to explain any material difference between subsequent actual events and such forward-looking statements, except to the extent required by applicable law.
